About Us

Long (Jimmy) Hoang has lived in the Southern suburbs for many years and given him an unrivalled understanding of the local property market and community.

Prior, Jimmy lived for a period of 10 years in the Adelaide CBD area with his family and connected regularly with the Asian community in the North and North-eastern suburbs.

With a role that spanned across all areas of the real estate experience, starting out in Property Management, he has progressed as Assistant Property Manager before moving into sales.

Jimmy focus on helping the clients to achieve benefit in buying investment properties, development projects, and effective property management.

Prior to settling in Adelaide with his family and growing a passion for real estate, he had 10 years' experience working as a legal consultant in charge of two Legal Department Groups in the role of Legal Section Manager of Honda Vietnam Joint venture " this placed him in good stead with negotiation experience and contractual principles.

Working in residential real estate property services, Jimmy certainly understands the balance between keeping skills to its highest level through continuous training and the importance of tailoring his services to client's needs by fostering a professional relationship built on trust with clients.
